

GORAN KNEŽEVIĆ, Minister of Economy

He worked in the public sector for seventeen years, while, in 2004, he devoted himself to his city Zrenjanin, transforming it from the municipality into a city named the "City of the Future", and he, as mayor of Zrenjanin, "Mayor with a Vision". He became the Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Water Management in the Government of the Republic of Serbia in July 2012, and then briefly went back to the private sector until 11 August 2016 when he was appointed Minister of Economy.